Greater Harlem Nursing Home's annual Open House was held on June 30, 2006. The event featured guest speaker Scott M. Stringer, Manhattan Borough President. In his speech, he addressed the lack of affordable housing for seniors in the city and his support of legislation for appropriate Medicaid/Medicare funding for senior services. Greater Harlem's Open House was well attended by representatives from area hospitals and other referral agencies, as well as community residents. Shown above is Mr. Stringer accepting a Certificate of Appreciation from Greater Harlem for his continued support to the seniors in the Harlem community.
