ST. JOHNLAND CELEBRATES!

Kings Park, NY—December 31, 2005—Residents at St. Johnland Nursing Center in Kings Park were busy celebrating the holidays! The traditional lighting of the large Christmas tree, kindly donated by Reliable Tree Service, in early December was accompanied by carolers from the Abiding Presence Lutheran Church and several local Girl Scout troops. Other carolers from State Bank of Long Island made the rounds through the nursing center during the month.

Over 300 of St. Johnland's residents and their families were served a wonderful holiday dinner by the administrative staff of the nursing center. Additional religious services and concerts were also held. After Christmas, a very special candlelight dinner with entertainment was underwritten by a generous anonymous donor. Residents received gifts from staff members and the administrator, as well as from several local non profit organizations including Smithtown Gospel Tabernacle and the Salvation Army. Even participants in the daycare program celebrated with their own holiday events.

St. Johnland provides skilled nursing care with specialties in Alzheimer's/dementia care, head injury and subacute care. They also provide home health care and adult day care. For further information, please call (631) 269-5800.
